SEPTEMBER 2021....

A NEW Education for Ministry (EfM) class will be offered online.

EfM was developed by the School of Theology in Sewanee, Tennessee, to provide a mechanism for people to work through their questions of faith. This four-year course of study provides the framework for the group to connect faith to their daily lives through reading and discussion.

Meeting once a week in small groups on Zoom (training will be provided) with people from your community, led by mentors trained to facilitate the experience, you will begin to think theologically, reflect faithfully, and speak civilly when confronted by beliefs and principles in opposition to your own. By being an EfM participant, you will learn how to articulate your faith. You will learn how to shape your faith into action. And that's something we can all appreciate in today's world.

For over 10 years, EfM has been a vital part of the activities offered to St Peter's and to the community. Approximately 20 people have completed the four year program.

At its heart EfM is a program in practical theology, a program based on a set of five core practices that form and support us in the various ministries to which we are called.

- Living in Community
- Regular Prayer and Worship
- Theological Reflection
- Study of the Christian Tradition
- Vocational Discernment

Although this is a 4-year program, you only have to commit to one year at a time. The cost is $375 each year which includes manuals and texts. We will meet weekly for 2 ½ hours for nine months (September – May).

If you are interested in becoming a participant in EfM, please contact Tom Dasher (tdasher@berry.edu) or Randy Warley (randyw.09.19@gmail.com).

You will be added to an email list to keep you posted about the program. Putting your name on the list does not commit you to the class. For additional information go to the web address: <https://efm.sewanee.edu>.

EYC meets on Sundays at 4pm
