EPISCOPAL DIOCESE
OF ATLANTA

Input Needed | Diocesan Survey

Given that this is the 9th year of Bishop Wright's episcopacy, and that we find ourselves coming out of a pandemic, transitioning into a new way of being, now is the time to check the pulse of the Diocese again, and gather feedback to guide us in strategic decision making for the new season to come.

We ask for your partnership in this initiative by providing your feedback. Those asked to provide feedback are any member of the Episcopal Diocese of Atlanta, especially Clergy, Wardens, Treasurers, parish ministry heads, members of Diocesan Commissions, and Annual Council delegates.

The survey will help us determine the best means of communication with members of the Diocese, our priorities for the future, the needs of our parishes, and strategic goals for our future together.

Thank you, and may God continue to bless our common life,

+Rob Wright
Bishop

JUNE 1, 2021

THE REV. DAVID
E. BOYD III

ARRIVES!

Father John will be in Sewanee during the month of June continuing his DMin studies. David will be in the office during the week and in the pulpit on Sundays.

A native Georgian, The Rev. David E. Boyd III comes to St. Peter's from Atlanta. Raised in the United Methodist Church, Deacon David joined the Episcopal Church during his senior year of high school. After graduating from The Westminster Schools, he headed north to Kentucky, where he studied Religion and Art History at Centre College. On the first day of orientation, he met his wife, Sarah, with whom he studied abroad in Spain and France. After graduating in 2017, Deacon David served for one year in the Episcopal Service Corps in Atlanta, working in the food pantry at Emmaus House. He left the Corps to attend seminary at the School of Theology at the University of the South in Sewanee and will graduate this May. During seminary, David married Sarah in 2019 and they adopted their Bichon fur baby, Teddy, in 2020. Some of Deacon David's non-churchy passions include watching Georgia football, cooking for friends and family, and getting lost in the woods. Sarah and David cannot wait to move to Rome and get to know their new church family!

CHILDREN's CHAPEL - Sunday on Facebook

Hollye Smith is your host for a kid-friendly service that features a children's message based on the day's lectionary. Be sure to print out the bulletin that will assist you as you follow along!

Children's Chapel will continue through the summer.

Service is available on Facebook any time after 8am on Sunday. Bulletins are included in the Friday email as well as on the church website under Children's Ministry.
