Compassion Camp is a program where kids and families explore what it means to have compassion for ourselves, others, and the world.

VOLUNTEERS:

We will embrace our lovingkindness through song, crafts, games, and skits, and we need your help!

Are you willing to come have some fun with us?

Jobs include: group leaders (no prep—just play); rotation assistants, game leader, group assistants, registration help (June 28 only), welcome crew (either each day or single day from 8:30-9:15).

Please reach out to Hollye Smith (706.512.9193 or stpetersromefamily.org) to sign up!

THE REV. DAVID E. BOYD III

Father John will be in Sewanee during the month of June continuing his DMin studies. David will be in the office during the week and in the pulpit on Sundays.

A native Georgian, The Rev. David E. Boyd III comes to St. Peter's from Atlanta. Raised in the United Methodist Church, Deacon David joined the Episcopal Church during his senior year of high school. After graduating from The Westminster Schools, he headed north to Kentucky, where he studied Religion and Art History at Centre College. On the first day of orientation, he met his wife, Sarah, with whom he studied abroad in Spain and France. After graduating in 2017, Deacon David served for one year in the Episcopal Service Corps in Atlanta, working in the food pantry at Emmaus House. He left the Corps to attend seminary at the School of Theology at the University of the South in Sewanee and will graduate this May. During seminary, David married Sarah in 2019 and they adopted their Bichon fur baby, Teddy, in 2020. Some of Deacon David's non-churchy passions include watching Georgia football, cooking for friends and family, and getting lost in the woods. Sarah and David cannot wait to move to Rome and get to know their new church family!

WELCOME TO ST. PETER'S

Education for Ministry (EfM)

September 2021 a new EfM class will be offered face to face.

EfM was developed by the School of Theology in Sewanee, Tennessee, to provide a mechanism for people to work through their questions of faith. This four-year course of study provides the framework for the group to connect faith to their daily lives through reading and discussion. Meeting once a week in small groups led by mentors trained to facilitate the experience, you will begin to think theologically, reflect faithfully, and think more deeply about your religious experience. For over 10 years, EfM has been a vital part of the activities offered to St Peter's and to the community. Approximately 20 people have completed the four year program. At its heart EfM is a program in practical theology, a program based on a set of five core practices that form and support us in the various ministries to which we are called:

- Living in Community
- Regular Prayer and Worship
- Theological Reflection
- Study of the Christian Tradition
- Vocational Discernment

Although this is a 4 year program, you only have to commit to one year at a time. The cost is $375 each year which includes manuals and texts. We will meet weekly for 2 hours for nine months (September - May). There will be breaks for the holidays.

If you are interested in becoming a participant in EfM, please contact:
Tom Dasher (tdasher@berry.edu)
Randy Warley (randyw.09.19@gmail.com)
